

Your Regional Plan

Conserved Wildlife Habitat Environment

Metric:

Out of 663,768 acres in the Lake Sunapee Upper Valley region, 371,625 acres are ranked by the NH Wildlife Action Plan 2010 as important wildlife habitat. Of this area, 82,762 acres, or 22%, are under some form of conservation.

Geography:

Upper Valley Lake Sunapee Regional Planning Commission region

Summary:

This metric takes the area of land that is both ranked as very important wildlife habitat, and also is under some form of conservation, in the Upper Valley Lake Sunapee region.

Data Sources:

NH Wildlife Action Plan 2010: Wildlife Habitat Ranked by Ecological Condition

GRANIT Conservation and Protected Lands

GRANIT New Hampshire Political Boundaries

